International student candidates who have been admitted to enroll at our University in the 2023-2024 academic year have to certify that they have Turkish language proficiency at the C1 level in order to start their courses in the programs they have registered. Students who enroll in a program whose language of instruction is Turkish, but whose Turkish proficiency is insufficient or who do not have a Turkish proficiency document, must take the Turkish Proficiency Exam, which will be held by DILMER on 22-23-24 September 2023, at the beginning of the academic year in which they are registered. Students who score 70 (seventy) points (C1) and above in this exam are considered to be proficient in Turkish and will be able to start their education in the program they are registered in. As Turkish Proficiency Certificate, Yunus Emre Institute documents obtained within the last two years before the date of registration are also valid.
